

16 • INTERMOUNTAIN JEWISH NEWS • February 6, 2009

OPENING RECEPTION AT KOHELET FEB. 10*Ivy Delon exhibit*'Platte Canyon Autumn' by Ivy Delon

The work of pastel and oil artist Ivy Delon, a member of the Colorado Jewish Artists Guild, will be on exhibit at Kohelet beginning Tuesday, Feb. 10, through April 30. The opening reception is Feb. 10, 5-7 p.m.

In the tradition of the Impressionists, Ivy Delon's work evokes the ethereal beauty of nature.

"I am attracted to the rhythms of nature and the flow and patterns within the landscape. A garden or figure are a constant inspiration and challenge," says Delon.

"My painting process is spontaneous and heartfelt — I use rhythms to meander through my paintings, with varying subtlety in expression."

Delon graduated from the Art Institute of Colorado in 1977 and worked as a graphic designer for five years.

Her interest in painting was stimulated in 1982 by a summer painting workshop in Maine, and she has been painting and teaching ever since.

Her paintings are in collections nationwide, including the Portland Hilton, Syntax Corporation and Bloomin' Flower Cards.

Information: Georgina Kolber, (303) 394-9993, ext. 107.